WHY MEN ARE ALWAYS LEFT BEHIND?

Over the past couple of decades, society has increasingly focused on women's empowerment. However, I ask you to consider the plight of men as well. While it is understandable that women have endured significant hardships throughout history, it doesn't make sense to concentrate solely on women's issues while overlooking men. Take the well-known tragedy of the Titanic, for example. In that incident, women and children were prioritised for lifeboats, while men were left behind. This not only highlights gender discrimination but also illustrates how infrequently we discuss this specific issue. Bringing this into the present, consider the Pahalgam attack that occurred a few months ago. This incident not only revealed religious tensions but also indirectly demonstrated how women were once again protected, while men were not. I want to clarify that I am not against women's empowerment. I firmly believe that men deserve equal rights and opportunities as women do. Men often feel pressured to be the "man of the house," which can severely impact their mental health. It is crucial to recognise that, while some men have caused significant harm to women, we should not stereotype all men, but rather focus on the positive aspects.

Men typically do not express their emotions as openly as women do. This tendency not only reflects their perceived strength but also indicates their ability to hide their feelings. We often see our mothers cry more than our fathers, and many of us feel a deep sadness when we witness our fathers in tears. This illustrates the heavy emotional burden that men carry. As a woman, I support both men and women. Perhaps we will soon find a new term in the dictionary to describe those who advocate for equality for both genders!

Teacher Talk

My Journey with TGWS

Being a part of The Geekay World School has been an enriching experience for me both as a teacher and a parent. As an educator, I have witnessed the school's commitment to holistic learning, where equal importance is given to academics, co-curricular activities, and values. The professional training and personal development sessions offered here have been immensely valuable. They not only enhance our teaching skills but also empower us to grow with confidence, creativity, and renewed energy, benefiting both educators and students alike. What makes this journey even more special is that my children are also growing up in this nurturing environment. The blend of innovative teaching, engaging activities, and individual care has shaped their confidence, curiosity, and overall personality. For me, TGWS is not just a workplace; it is a second home where both my children and I are learning, evolving, and thriving together.

Parent Talk

The Geekay World School was our first choice for our son, even before we migrated from Sri Lanka to Walajapet, India. From the very beginning, the admission process was smooth and well-organized, allowing us to complete everything with ease before our relocation. The professional, friendly, and supportive teachers, together with the school's warm environment, strong academics, diverse extracurricular activities, and excellent sports facilities, have helped our son settle in quickly. His participation in his first IIMUN event was truly enriching and boosted his confidence. We feel deeply grateful to be part of such a vibrant school community, one that nurtures both learning and personal growth while laying the foundation for a bright future. The Geekay World School has not only lived up to our expectations but exceeded them, making us proud to call it our school.
